Personal Invitation for Mr. Andrew Jennings

Dear Andrew

It is a pleasure to invite you to the first Media Roundtable, hosted by FIFA's President, Mr. Joseph S. Blatter, at the Metropolitan Hotel, Hyde Park Corner, London, on January 28, 2003, at 4.30 p.m.

This first of a series of such talks aims at "de-mystifying" issues and to offer relevant information about virtually anything that you may find worthwhile, and which is of importance to FIFA and its President.

After all allegations against FIFA's President were proven wrong in every respect, and after the Zurich Authorities pointed out that charges brought against the President were not only unsubstantiated but "biased and perfectly unwarranted", we feel that a new leaf in Media Relations should be opened.

It is a dialogue we are planning to initiate, one that shall be ongoing and meaningful for all parties involved.

It is in this vein therefore, that the Media Roundtable wishes to begin an open dialogue with leading UK and English-language media, and it is for this reason that we would welcome your attendance at the Roundtable.

We are inviting but a few leading authors to each event. That is also why we appreciate your early confirmation of attendance, or, in case you cannot attend, your cancellation. Please note that this is a personal invitation and extended to you "ad personam" only. In the event that you cannot attend personally, we shall make sure that you'd be invited to the next Roundtable. If you are not interested to participate at all, that, too, is of course acceptable.

Kindly advise us by email (fifaroundtable@ecnlt.com) whether or not you wish to/can participate by January 20, 2003.

We are looking forward to welcoming you on January 28 and hope that you would be able to attend.

Yours truly

Peter J Hargitay
