17 January 2003

Mr. Ralph Potter
The President
Antigua Barbuda Football Association
P.O. Box 773
St. Johns, Antigua.

Dear Sir,

Re: FIFA Financial Assistance Program

The purpose of this letter is to correct statements made by you and other members of the football association on the Observer Radio Station during the course of the week ended 17 January 2003.

Our information related to the above is as follows:

01. C. A. S. Hewlett & Co., Chartered Accountants, were never appointed either orally or in writing, to manage the fund provided by FIFA for the development of football in Antigua Barbuda.
02. Mr. Raymond Doorgen was not appointed to represent the firm of C. A. S. Hewlett & Co. to manage the fund. He did this on his own account without informing his employer, C. A. S. Hewlett & Co.
03. The Antigua Football Association never consulted the firm of C. A. S. Hewlett & Co. or its principal Mr. C. A. S. Hewlett, that the fund was being managed by Mr. Doorgen on the company's behalf. Mr. Hewlett learnt about the management of the fund on the radio only during this week ended 17 January 2003.
04. The firm of C. A. S. Hewlett & Co. takes absolutely no responsibility for the management and disbursement of the FIFA fund referred to above.

Yours truly,

C. A. S. Hewlett & Co.
