Dear Sir,

We act for and on behalf of Mr. Austin Jack Warner.

We are instructed that our client is a Vice-President FIFA, President of CONCACAF and Special Advisor to the Trinidad and Tobago Football Federation.

We are instructed that since or about the year 2001, Mr. Andrew Jennings, the servant and or agent of your company, has been stalking and harassing our client with a view to soliciting information for his many publications on our client, some of which have been defamatory and have caused serious injury to the reputation of our client.

Our client has on numerous occasions and at various locations throughout the world requested Mr. Jennings to cease stalking and harassing our client. On those occasions our client also informed Mr.

Jennings that our client had no intention of being interviewed or questioned by Mr. Jennings, more particularly in the unprofessional manner that Mr. Jennings had been conducting himself.

Despite our client's repeated requests to Mr. Jennings as aforesaid, on Friday 12 May 2006, at the Piarco International Airport in Trinidad, Mr. Jennings approached our client in an aggressive manner, hurling questions at our client while violently shoving a microphone into our client's face thereby causing injuries to our client's upper lip. Our client requested Mr. Jennings to "leave me alone", but instead Mr. Jennings deliberately blocked our client, leaving our client with no alternative but to push Mr. Jennings aside so that our client could continue walking. Our client reserves his rights regarding legal redress in this regard.

We are instructed that this incident is just one example of Mr. Jennings's unprofessional and irresponsible behaviour towards our client which said behaviour is a sad representation of the integrity of your company.

We are in the circumstances instructed to request that Mr. Jennings, your company's servant and or agent, immediately cease and desist from stalking, harassing and or threatening our client failing which our client will institute legal proceedings against your company and Mr. Jennings to restrain

Mr. Jennings from doing same.

We are also to request that you issue a written apology to our client for the reprehensible conduct of Mr. Jenning.

Yours faithfully

K. R. Lalla and Company
